

Madison Elementary School

- February 4 – “I have a Dream” activity, Dream Bulletin Board. We want line the halls with students writing about what their dream is for the future. The office staff/Encore staff will be taking pictures of students holding white boards of what they want to be when they grow up and making a bulletin board with it.
- February 11 – Pick a Person and Hallway Timeline - Choose one person from the selections show videos/read articles/do read alouds to be able to create a timeline about the person's life for the hallway.
- February 18 – Word Cloud about Chosen Person-post in hallway - After watching videos, read alouds, etc. about your Black History figure students will help create a word cloud of important characteristics of that person.
- February 25 – Hope Box - Take what you learned from the positive character traits of your historical person and put the ones you wish to be in a box. This is your hope for your future.
