

Principal's Message

A Huge THANK YOU to our Veterans

We teamed up with Kristin Figliola, Activities Assistant, at Town Hall to write letters to our Veterans. Several classes of students wrote letters to Veterans and First Responders thanking them for their service. Ms. Figliola is going to be able to provide Mott's Military Museum with 100 letters to veterans for their Veterans Day Ceremony on Sunday! Twenty letters will be taken to residents at Brookdale Lakeview Crossing (assisted living facility) for their veterans and used for their Veterans day tribute this weekend.

Artist of the Week

Joseph Casserly

The fifth graders learned about dream catchers and how Native Americans used dream catchers to help protect against evil. The students were provided with several examples but encouraged to create their own design for the web of their catcher. Next, we learned how to draw feathers and then added a personal dream or goal in each feather. Lastly, we painted with watercolor paint and sprinkled salt for an added speckle effect. Joseph Casserly was selected by Mrs. Sperk for his creative and craftsmanship. Joseph is a 5th grade student in Mrs. Cordell's class. He has been attending Groveport Elementary since second grade. Joseph loves hockey, baseball and hanging out with his friends. He also enjoys painting projects and his favorite color is green.

Congratulations Joseph for being our Artist of the Week!

We had a special Army guest speaker, Seth Winhoven, talk with a few classes about making choices of "What you do today, affects your tomorrows." Students learned about our military, putting your mind to your goal, thinking before speaking and were able to do some push-ups and physical strength exercises like our military persons.
