PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Interim Reports Available on Progressbook Today For Grades 1 - 5

Please talk to your child about their progress so far this nine weeks. If grades aren't where they should be, encourage them to make sure they are turning in all assignments and putting forth their best effort every day!

FOCUS ON LEARNING

Our 1st grade students have met their Lexia Unit and Minute goal 2 months in a row! They also had the highest units gained and percentage of usage in our building. We are super proud of their effort and commitment to the program. Our building also won the Lexia Challenge in our district for the 2nd month.

CONGRATULATIONS – CRUISER CHEERLEADERS!

Congratulations to Ella Cortmill, Addyson Hale, Estell Hale, Morgan Holbrook, Lexie Fox, and Ava Quinonez!

The cheerleaders took first place at a Cheer/Dance Competition at Capital University last Sunday. We are very proud of their accomplishment!

GUEST READERS OR MYSTERY READERS WANTED!

It would be so cool if we could have a bunch of community members (parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, older siblings, board members, business owners, anyone and everyone) read one of their favorite books to our kids. Our students love to be read to and it is an enjoyable experience to listen to others share their favorite stories. It is easier than ever to be a Guest Reader or super fun to be a Mystery Reader without even leaving your house.

Our tech coach, Rachel Owens, created this easy to follow video on how to record your read-aloud. If you don't want to use the stickers to be a Mystery Reader you can just introduce yourself and start reading.
